ASEAN SYMPOSIUM 2021

Re-imagining post-COVID education in the ASEAN region

ABOUT THE EVENT

This event aims to build an understanding of the major issues faced by education systems through the ASEAN region. The symposium will provide a collaborative platform where Australian and ASEAN researchers, policy makers and educators will come together to discuss and share major education issues facing their countries.

We invite you to join us at this free four day online symposium. Event is free, registration essential.
